CAEN HOLDS KEY TO PARIS

Fate Of Rundstedt Hangs In Balance

TANK BATTLE FOR ODON-CROSSING: FOUR NAZI COUNTER-ATTACKS REPULSED

SHAEF, June 30.

There is no confirmation at SHAEF this afternoon of the Paris radio report that British and Canadian forces have landed east of Orne estuary and have captured Cabourg, about five miles from the river.

A Normandy front line dispatch says that a German counter-attack against the west flank of the British wedge on the Odon-Caen front has been sent staggering back with heavy losses.

This morning's communique said "The Allied bridgehead over the river Odon has been extended on both flanks. Elsewhere, the situation remains generally unchanged. Fighting continued north of Evrecy where the enemy has brought up fresh troops.

Forts in the Cherbourg breakwater have surrendered, and mopping up continues in the Cap De La Hague area.

Rail and road transport bridges, railway tracks and crossings behind the battle line were attacked by our aircraft yesterday afternoon and evening.

RUSH COUNTER-ATTACK FAILS

Reuter's Special Correspondent at S.H.A.E.F. cables:— Four German counter-attacks in the Tilly-Caen sector—the one between Grainville and Bretteville and three around Colleville—have been broken and thrown back, according to reports of the battle at S.H.A.E.F. today.

In the main battle area around Evrecy and Esquay, Rommel has been forced to commit some of his reserves there in the fighting which is still swaying backwards and forwards. No further progress has been made around the top of the British wedge which is apparently waiting on the clearing of the northern bank of the Odon where strong German pockets of resistance were bypassed in the initial advance.

Marshal Rundstedt's rush counter-attacks last night against the west flank of the British wedge has been sent staggering back with heavy losses in tanks and infantry.

Scottish fighting men took the brunt of the counter-attack and sending the Germans reeling back pushed forward and occupied fresh ground. The German spearhead was aimed at Cheux. Rocket-firing Typoons attacked German tank concentrations shooting up fifteen. The counter-attack was made from the south-west between Vendes and Gavrus.

Activity on the rest of the front has quietened down a bit even north of Caen, although there has been slight activity there around Breville, a mile or so over the eastern bank of the Caen Canal. British forces are now within half a mile south-west of the airfield of Carpique just south of Tilly Road. The British Battleship Rodney, it is learned, went into action with her sixteen inch guns firing from a distance of about 30,000 yards to help in the main British attack in the Tilly area. Four forts on the Cherbourg breakwater have now surrendered. Other coastal defences which have been giving trouble on the isle of Pelee roughly in the centre near the lighthouse were attacked by Marauders yesterday which went in at 6,000 feet. Ground forces later reported that a white flag had been run up. The only resistance in the north is now coming in Cap De La Hague area which is heavily mined round about the high ridge which runs up to the Cap. Some fire from coastal guns is being experienced there. Resistance south-east of Beaumont Hague itself is lessening.

The official summing up of the German counter-attack made to-day is "a short sharp attack and the heaviest that Rundstedt has yet made against our salient." The Germans are putting all they have got to unloosening the British grip. After the first impact of the attack, British infantry stretched back slightly before the counter punch. While the attack was expedited, there was nothing to suggest that it was a deliberately sped-up affair. To the south and north-east of Cambes and Chateau De La Lande, the British attack has slowed.

Fighter-bombers on armed reconnaissance in Dreux Chartres and Argentan areas destroyed more than 100 railway cars. Other fighter-bombers strafed junctions and rolling-stock near Paris at Evreux and at Bolbec 20 miles east of Le Havre. Rail-line at Vitry, 100 miles east of Paris was severed. Medium and light bombers attacked Viaduct between Saint Hilaire and Vitre and bridges in the Rennes area. Coastal batteries on Cap de la Hague were attacked by medium bombers."

HISTORIC BATTLE FOR CAEN

LONDON, June 30: Reuter's Military Commentator London cables:— The Allied landing in the Orne estuary which the German radio reports to-day and the tank battle for the Odon crossing—now in its fourth day—are the real battles for Caen. What happens at Caen in these next seven days, will largely decide the further course of the Invasion. This is the first serious and all out attempt by General Montgomery to take the city. What is at stake is more than the fate of Caen. The whole Rundstedt Plan is challenged. If the cream of the "Wehrmacht" is defeated here at Caen, there are only 140 miles between General Montgomery and Paris. We may be certain therefore that Field Marshal Rundstedt having committed himself so far will spare no effort to save the situation at Caen. The prize of a decisive Allied victory here is greater than any which the Allied armies have yet won in the West. It is nothing less than Paris.

Flying Bomb Attack

Innocent Babies Killed In Children's Hostel

SOUTHERN ENGLAND, June 30: Flying bombs were still crossing the South Coast this afternoon (Friday) in an attack which continued almost without pause throughout the day. Fighters and ground defences again combined to take their toll of the bombs, while early this morning, R.A.F. heavy bombers without loss continued their attack against the flying bomb installations in Northern France.

The worst incident reported to-day was when a Children's Hostel in a remote evacuation area was hit, killing and injuring 26 babies.

As the rescuers worked on throughout the day, flying bombs flashed across above them, accompanied by tremendous barrages of anti-aircraft fire, but they never paused.

As the bodies of the babies were brought out, they were identified by little labels tied to their ankles. A darkhaired boy in a blue knitted bedjacket, a fairhaired girl in pink, others just as they had been dressed and tucked in for the night. The bodies were wrapped in blankets and quietly removed.—Reuter.

Flying Bombs Cause Casualties

SOMEWHERE IN SOUTHERN ENGLAND, June 30: Flying bombs came over Southern England during the night, and at intervals this morning, Friday, causing damage and casualties. Fighters and Anti-aircraft fire destroyed a portion of those sent over.

R. A. F. Personnel Injured

AHMEDABAD, June 30.

Some persons of the Royal Air Force are reported to have been injured, as the result of stone-throwing indulged in by a gang of Chharas, a criminal tribe settlement at Naroda near Ahmedabad. The police soon arrived on the spot and arrested ten Chharas.—A. P.

NEW DEAL FOR PHILIPPINES

WASHINGTON, June 30: President Roseveit today (Friday) signed legislations pledging the United States to drive the Japanese invaders from the Philippines and to grant the Islands their full independence, as soon as normal Government functions can be restored. The legislation will permit the United States to acquire air, land and naval bases in the Philippines.

U. S. Bid For 'Bomb Japan' Island

From Reuter's Special Correspondent aboard the United States Flagship in the Marianas June 30: Overcoming fierce Japanese resistance in some of the most rugged terrain on Saipan, the potential "Bomb Japan" island in the Western Pacific, American forces have advanced beyond Mount Tapotchau. They are now approaching a point from which the final drive for complete investment of the island will develop. While making relatively small territorial gains, Allied troops have fought a dogged battle lasting several days in the centre of the island to straighten out their line. On their right flank, they have already penetrated deep into Japanese territory north of Magicienne bay.

NO COMPROMISE ON INDIA'S FUNDAMENTAL DEMAND

Khan Saheb Interprets August Resolution: Plea For Change In British Imperialists' Mental Outlook

BOMBAY, Friday.

That the demand for the withdrawal of the August resolution amounted to asking India to give up her fundamental demand for freedom, was the view expressed by Dr. Khan Saheb, ex-Premier of the North-West Frontier Province, in an interview to the "Bombay Chronicle".

Questioned about the reported refusal of the Viceroy to meet Gandhiji on the ground that there had been no change in Mahatmaji's attitude Dr. Khan Saheb said: "If the Viceroy is thinking that the August resolution is likely to be withdrawn, he is mistaken. The resolution is just a demand for the freedom of India and under no circumstances can that fundamental demand be withdrawn or compromised.

"It is not surprising for me to find that the Viceroy is still suffering from the old Imperialist prestige which has brought India and the world to the present deplorable position. If the British Imperialists go on with the same mental outlook and not change their attitude towards India which can only be done by declaring India free, then sooner or later they will find themselves in a position from which it will be impossible for them to retract, however keen they may be to do so.

As for the Frontier, I am sure that the people are prepared for all sacrifices which may be necessary to achieve the freedom of India. A Pathan has no respect for one who compromises or shows weakness in carrying out his duty. A Red Shirt who apologises to Government is never given any responsible post in the organisation."

GANDHI-RAJAJI TALKS PROGRESS

POONA, June 30.

Discussions on the present political situation between Gandhiji and Mr. C. Rajagopalachari were resumed this morning when the latter arrived early at Dr. Dinshaw Mehta's Nature Cure Clinic and remained closetted with Mahatma Gandhi for considerable time. It is understood that Rajaji will now meet Mahatma Gandhi for a few hours every day as long as the latter is in Poona and discuss the next step to be taken in regard to the political stalemate.

In this connection it appears that the report about the intention of Mahatma Gandhi to invite the Government to intern him is premature at this stage. From available indications it seems that Gandhiji will concentrate on exploring all possible avenues towards making his contribution to the situation now obtaining in the country and for this purpose he will be in communication with H. E. the Viceroy. But only if he finds that he cannot make any substantial contribution to improve the situation according to his light he will not desire to remain outside jail.

Mr. Shantikumar Morarji who went to Panchgani returned here yesterday after making final arrangements for the Mahatma's sojourn there. As at present arranged the party will leave Poona on Saturday excepting Gandhiji, Dr. Sushila Nayar and Mr. Pyarelal who have booked for Sunday.

Among to-day's arrivals was Mr. Devadas Gandhi who will attend to-morrow's meeting of the Kasturba Trust and will also stay with his father at the hill resort for three or four days.—United Press.

Mahatma To Pursue Negotiations

POONA, June 30.

Mahatma Gandhi had further discussions with Mr. C. Rajagopalachariar, Mr. G. D. Birla, Mr. K. M. Munshi and others. A number of Congress workers from Bombay saw Gandhiji today. The general opinion in Congress circles is that the latest exchange of letters between His Excellency the Viceroy and Mahatma Gandhi does not mean the end of establishing contact. Gandhiji's last night speech, it is pointed out, indicates his desire to pursue negotiations.

Mr. Pyarelal, Mahatma Gandhi's Secretary, stated that the report from Poona yesterday stating that Gandhiji had indicated to his friends his intention to write to the Viceroy asking him to re-intern him, was incorrect. He also pointed out that Mr. C. Rajagopalachari's discussion with Gandhiji yesterday was general and that it was not correct to say that Sjt. Rajagopalachari tried to persuade Gandhiji not to take any such step.

Not Disappointed By Wavell's Reply

POONA, June 29

Lord Wavell's reply has not upset Mahatma Gandhi and he has taken the reply as he had taken many other similar communication in the past, said a close associate of Mahatma Gandhi on his reaction to the Viceroy's reply.

The Viceroy's invitation to Gandhiji "to make constructive suggestions" which he (Lord Wavell) would consider, it is stated, leave room for any future negotiations which he might undertake.

Contrary to expectations Mahatma Gandhi steered clear in his 30 minutes speech to Congress workers today of reference to controversial subjects and gave a hint of his next move. This reticence on his part it was pointed out in authoritative quarters here, showed that Mahatma Gandhi's emphasis would continue to be for "peace and settlement."—A.P.

DR. BHADKAMKAR ON GANDHIJI'S HEALTH.

MIRAJ, June 30: Dr. R. H. Bhadkamkar left Miraj last night for Poona to examine Mahatma Gandhi to-day before he leaves for Panchgani.

Referring to Gandhiji's health Dr. Bhadkamkar remarked that his health on the whole was improving.—United Press.

MADRAS, June 30: Mr. T. R. Venketramana Shastri arrived here after meeting Gandhiji.

It is learnt that Gandhiji told Shrinivas Shastri not to come to Poona if health did not permit. It is also learnt that the "Quit India" resolution along with the correspondence between the Viceroy and Gandhiji along with other literature on it has been sent to legal luminaries to elicit their legal opinion. But it is felt in legal circles that it is not possible to give opinion on the issue as it takes a political character.—Orient Press.

RADHAKRISHNAN FOR POONA.

MADRAS, June 30: Dr. Sir S. Radhakrishnan, vice-Chancellor, Benares Hindu University, left Madras by the Grand Trunk Express this morning for Hyderabad (Deccan) 'en route' to Poona to meet Mahatma Gandhi on Wednesday next.—A. P.

CHIANG'S MESSAGE TO MAHATMA.

MADRAS, June 30: Sir Radhakrishnan met with Chiang-kai-Shek's message. It is learnt Sir Radhakrishnan is writing a book on Chungking.

When a reputed constitutional lawyer asked Sir Radhakrishnan to send him his views on the 'Quit India' resolution he jokingly said that his correspondence is being opened by censors and he could not send anything by post.—Orient Press.

WAVELL'S REPLY TO SAPRU.

MADRAS, June 30.

It is understood that Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru has written to Lord Wavell to find out a way to end the deadlock. Lord Wavell, it is learnt has written back to Sapru that Quit India' resolution is an anti-war measure, and he could not do anything unless Gandhi withdraws the resolution.—Orient Press.

LUCKNOW, June 30.

The first indication of Mr. Jinnah's views on the meeting between Gandhiji and himself is contained in a letter Mr. Jinnah sent to Mr. M. A. Rauf Abbas the editor of 'Hug' Lucknow in response to a letter from Mr. Rauf Abbas soliciting Mr. Jinnah's views on the meeting. Mr. Jinnah states, "I think I have made it quite clear more than once with regard to the question of my meeting Gandhiji. It requires no further discussion. The Muslim League is the only authoritative organisation of Muslims of India and I am sure you will support its policy and programme.—Orient Press.

Asian Assurance Forges Ahead

The 33rd Annual General Meeting of the Asian Assurance Co. Ltd. was held on Thursday the 29th June. The Chairman, Mr. G. N. Rajpal, who presided stated: "The outstanding feature of the year's working is a considerable increase in new business by 32% over the previous year. It is not only, that the amount of business has increased, but also the quality of business, in as much as the average sum assured per policy has improved. Our average policy today is in keeping with that of other large companies. You will be glad to learn, that the new business for the current year shows very satisfactory progress, being 2½ times that for the corresponding period last year. The assets of the Company now amount to nearly 1½ crores, and the business in force exceeds 5½ crores. The Asian Assurance Co. Ltd. therefore, stands today in the vanguard of Insurance Companies, transacting business in India. It has never been the policy of the present Directors to seek spectacular progress in one direction only. While the new business has progressed, you will have observed, that there has been a decline in the expense ratio. The statutory renewal expense ratio of 10.31 per cent is amongst the lowest for Insurance Companies In referring to the figures of the general department, I have again to emphasise the policy of your Directors of steady and solid progress, rather than spectacular results."

The Directors' Report and Accounts were adopted. Mr. J. N. Heredia, Mr. G. U. Chhabria and Mr. S. F. B. Tyabji were re-elected Directors. Messrs. S. B. Billimoria & Co., Registered Accountants, were appointed Auditors.

RS. 13,000 FOR INDIAN FEDERATION OF LABOUR

Arrangement Explained By Amery

LONDON, June 29: Mr. Amery, replying in the Commons today to an inquiry by Mr. Dobbie (Labour) why Rs. 13,000 per month was paid to the Indian Federation of Labour, declared. "In March 1942 the Government of India invited the Indian Federation of Labour and the All-India Trades' Union Congress to co-operate in measures to support the morale of labour in order to defeat potential enemy action and maintain production. The two bodies were invited to submit schemes, the cost of which the Government would be prepared to meet. The Federation submitted a scheme which the Government of India approved and agreed to pay for and the monthly grant referred to is in fulfilment of this arrangement."

Mr. Sorensen (Labour): Does Mr. Amery realise that this has been condemned very severely in many quarters in India?

Mr. Amery: It was open to Trade Unions in India to accept the scheme and work it.

Pather Decides To Vacate Premises

"A Gesture Of Goodwill"

DURBAN, June 30

Mr. P. R. Pather, who was convicted under the Pegging Act of refusing to vacate premises at 232, Moore Road, Durban, in the terms of a court order which expires on July 3 has decided to vacate the premises.

He said in a statement that his decision was the result of an appeal to him by the High Commissioner, Sir Shafaat Ahmad Khan and Senator Clarkson.

He added that the reactionary group in Durban was doing everything to frustrate attempts of the Union Government to settle the Indian question and in an atmosphere already charged with anti-Indian sentiment, it was not his purpose to further embarrass the Government and he desired to make a gesture of goodwill to the Europeans.—Reuter.

GANDHIJI AND STALIN DISQUALIFIED

(From Our Correspondent).
LONDON, June 30

When Bradford City Council last week considered the granting of freedom of City to Churchill and four Dominion Prime Ministers I.L.P. Councillors suggested that the names of Marshal Stalin and Gandhiji should be added to the list. The Chairman ruled that it was out of order to nominate additional persons without giving previous notice and so, comments a local paper "rescued the Council from embarrassment".

Japs Are Savages, Says Brenden-Bracken

LONDON, June 29

During a debate on the activities of the Ministry of Information Mr. Brenden Bracken, the Minister, said this about the Japanese "They are savages—brutal savages."

They are the Eastern Prussians—worse than the Prussians and they will have to get the most exemplary punishment inflicted in history. When that has been done the world will be a better place.—Reuter.

SIND BAN ON EXPORT OF COTTON CLOTH.

KARACHI, June 30: A press note issued to-day says:—"The ban on the export of cotton cloth by sea, rail, road or river from the province of Sind without a permit granted by the Director of Civil Supplies has also been applied to the export of cotton cloth by post.—A. P.

WHY DREAD COMMUNISM?

(From Our Correspondent)
LONDON, June 30.

Lord Londonderry's son Viscount Castlereagh M.P. in an article to the "Spectator" says: The policy of extreme Tories was governed by their dread of communism. They shrank from adopting stern measures against the Duce because he was anti-Communist. Gen. Franco to them was a great Christian Crusader against Communism and though Hitler was daily becoming more menacing, Von Ribbentrop had told them that the Fuehrer was Europe's safe bulwark against Communism. However, the course of the war has shown that Bolshevism had been a bulwark against Fascism.

Vital as the Anglo-Russian military alliance has proved in war, close commercial friendship will be no less in peace and no political ideology can be permitted to bar the way.

Dewey On Scope Of U. S. Presidential Campaign

CHICAGO, June 29.

Mr. Thomas Dewey, the Republican candidate for the Presidency, in a non-committal speech at the convention last night said that he refused to make any promises. "I have not made any pledges, promises or commmitments expressed or implied to any man", he said. "I will make none except to the American people."

He reaffirmed his support of the earlier Republican party declaration that the United States should participate in an organisation of international security.

Mr. Dewey affirmed that a change of administration next January could not, and would not, involve any change in the military conduct of the war. That was outside the scope of the present campaign.—Reuter.

Keynes And Morgenthau Plans For World Monetary Conference

BRETTON WOODS (New Hampshire), June 30.

The first of series of world conferences on post-war problems has opened here with representatives of 44 United and Associated nations attending.

President Roosevelt called this International Monetary Conference because he had decided that the financial problems arising from the war were so urgent that their settlement could not wait until the cessation of hostilities.

The immediate task confronting the delegates is to set up an International Office that will have power to control the exchange rate of the world's currencies so as to forestall any possible "international inflation" that might result from this war. Two plans are before the conference. One by Lord Keynes and the other by the Secretary of the United States Treasury, Mr. Henry Morgenthau and his Financial Adviser, Mr. Harry White.

The other matter on the agenda will be the creation of "an International Bank for Reconstruction" to provide loans for war-devastated or economically under-developed countries. As the proposals stand now, these loans would be equally made available to France, Egypt, India, Brazil and other countries.—Reuter.

APPEAL TO MAN'S NOBLER SELF

Natural Reaction To 'Ramshastri'

(By T. V. P.)

An appeal to man's noble instincts, an ennobling experience, a piece of cinematic art that induces one to follow the path of truth, virtue, honesty, uprightness and courage, an experience one wishes to go through again and again and again—that was the total effect on my mind left by the Marathi version of "Ramshastri" which I saw yesterday afternoon at Central.

A TELLING BIOGRAPHY

If the real test of the excellence of a picture is to make you forget that you are appreciating a piece of art and make you part and parcel of the atmosphere, background and the series of incidents that make the story, "Ramshastri" answers to it in an ample measure. It is a very satisfactory illusion of reality as it obtained in the days of the Peishwa rule under which Ramshastri Prabhune held the office of Chief Justice. The picture is his biography with emphasis on such details only as build up, establish and vindicate his character as history has represented it to us for the last 150 years and more.

A CITIZEN OF THE WORLD

"Ramshastri" is a treat to any cultured audience in any part of the world. The universality of its theme must captivate the mind of any people on earth. There is nothing parochial or provincial about the main development of the story or character of Ramshastri. Such men are the ornaments of any race or nation and it is very proper that Prabhat have also made a Hindustani version of Ramshastri. Several good pictures based on engrossing episodes or personages from Mahratta history have so far been made but they were all in Marathi.

FAREWELL RECEPTION TO MAJOR-GENERAL CANDY

BOMBAY, Friday.

A farewell reception was accorded by the medical profession in the city at the Willingdon Sports Club, Bombay, in honour of Major-General R. H. Candy, Surgeon-General with the Government of Bombay, on Thursday night. A dinner fixed for the occasion was cancelled at the last moment on account of rationing restrictions. Over a hundred leading doctors were present.

Col. S. S. Sokhey Drs. F. N. A. Moos, R. S. Tirodkar, V. L. Parmar, and others spoke paying eloquent tributes to Surgeon-General Candy.

The Major-General in a cordial reply thanked the hosts.

Savarkar's Representation To Governor

BOMBAY, Thursday.

Mr. Savarkar, President, Hindu Mahasabha has sent a telegram to His Excellency the Governor of Bombay which reads: "I appreciate Government's reconsideration and permission for the Pandharpur pilgrimage. Yet, I pressingly plead that the pilgrims should be allowed to buy rationing on the Ekadashi and Dwadashi days that is, the second and third of July at least, and the grain-dealers and hotels in Pandharpur be left free to sell. It would be really cruel to treat devotion as a crime punishable with two days' starvation." I feel confident that the pilgrims will abide by the conditions under which the pilgrimage was allowed by the Government in so far as it does not run counter to the Honour of the Hindu-flag.

CITY STUDENTS' HARDSHIP

Task For Vice-Chancellor At Principals' Meeting

BOMBAY, Friday.

Till to-day only 104 students have registered their names in the office of the Bombay University to be admitted in the First Year of the city's colleges. Of these 24 students propose to join arts, while 80 students want to join science classes.

Though the number of students who want to join the first year is far less than the expected figure, the problem regarding the admission of students to science classes bristles with difficulties. It is pointed out that in the present circumstances, it is difficult to admit all the students. But the projected meeting of the Vice-Chancellor with the Principals of the different colleges on Tuesday, it is expected will go a long way in solving most of the present difficulties.

While the question of admitting students for the first year is still on the anvil, there appears to be a large number of under-graduate students who demand admission in the city's different colleges or to switch over from one subject to another. There is also a tendency, it is learnt, on the part of a large number of students to write personal letters to the Vice-Chancellor in this connection. It is pointed out that consideration by the University authorities of such cases was not originally intended and that these cases were beyond their purview. Their first task, it appears, is to tackle the problem of the First Year students.

CLASSIFY NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS

Indian Languages' Papers' Association's Appeal

BOMBAY, June 30

An emergency meeting of the Executive Committee of the Indian Languages Newspapers' Association passed a resolution requesting the Government to classify newspapers, magazines and other periodicals not getting newsprint quotas as under: (a) periodicals of long standing normally consuming high grade foreign paper and getting same from foreign countries; (b) periodicals of long standing normally consuming high grade foreign paper but at present using Indian made paper in the absence of foreign imports; (c) periodicals of long standing normally consuming Indian made paper; and (d) periodicals not coming under the above three classes and depending for their existence on newsprint cuttings or whatever that could be got from the market.

The Association further requests the Government that Classes (a) and (b) be given import licences with shipping priorities, that Class (c) be given quotas for Indian made paper, and that Class (d) be given newsprint permits and be supplied rations from the newsprint wastages and tear-outs by requisition orders of this stuff on the newsprint quota-holders using newsprint reels.

The Association believes that thus there would not be any pressure on Indian made paper or on newsprint, and the necessities of the periodicals also would be easily met.—United Press.

Two Defendants Declared Elected Directors

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Chagla).

Chhotubhai C. Fozdar & Another ..... Plaintiffs.

Versus

The Asian Assurance Co. Ld., & Others ..... Defendants.

This was a suit for a declaration that the election of the 3rd and 4th defendants as directors of the defendant-company was void.

At the annual general meeting held on 30th June 1942, the 3rd and 4th defendants were declared elected on a show of hands, a poll being demanded but refused by the chairman.

When the suit first reached hearing a consent order was taken for a fresh election being held under the chairmanship of the Prothonotary of the High Court, the question as to validity of the proxies for 26,840 shares belonging to Meyer Nissim held by the first plaintiff being reserved for determination by the Court. A fresh meeting was accordingly held on 19th January 1944 at which the plaintiffs topped the poll with the assistance of the proxies in respect of Meyer Nissim's 26,840 Shares.

His Lordship now held that the votes obtained by the plaintiffs by these proxies were invalid because the right to vote was "property" which vested in the Official Assignee on Meyer Nissim's adjudication as an insolvent. His Lordship was further of opinion that under Article 34 of the Company, Meyer Nissim himself being a debtor to the Company was not entitled to vote.

His Lordship therefore dismissed the plaintiffs' suit with costs and declared the 3rd and 4th defendants, viz. S. F. B. Tyabji and J. N. Heredia, duly-elected directors of the company.

Municipal Schools To Close In Honour Of Late Mr. Bahadur Khan

Thereafter, the Committee adjourned without transacting any business.

No Film On Prophet's Life

The Director of Information, Bombay, writes:—The attention of the Government has been drawn to reports published in the press of an (unspecified) American film company's intention to produce a film on the life of the Prophet Mohammad. A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

In literature as in finance much paper and much poverty may co-exist.

—Washington Irving.

The Bombay Chronicle

THE BETTER WAY

"Gandhiji's 30 minutes' talk to Poona Congressmen is his first sustained political speech on the present situation after his release. It will naturally be scanned by readers with great care as they are anxious to know his mind on the present position and the steps to be taken in the near future. As if he realised that many in the country were too passively waiting for a lead from him he stated at the very outset that he spoke in his individual capacity and not as a Congress representative. So much depends on this point that it needs to be clearly understood. Explaining at some length his position vis-a-vis the Congress and the A.I.C.C. resolution he said: "I do not meet you as a representative in terms of the August resolution, to conduct the civil disobedience campaign adumbrated in that resolution. In the language of Satyagraha I ceased to occupy that status as soon as I was imprisoned. And if I am now out of it, it is not because of mine or your strength, but as a result of illness. Illness in a Satyagrahi is a thing to be ashamed of. This accidental release does not restore to me the authority that lapsed with my imprisonment. I discussed my position with some lawyer friends in terms of the law prevalent in this land, and they are of the opinion that what I hold to be true in the language of Satyagraha happens to be true legally, too." From another message from Poona we learn that some jurists hold the view that inasmuch as Gandhiji was authorised by the resolution to lead a non-violent movement but was prevented from doing so by his arrest and the events that followed the arrest the authority delegated to him has lapsed and with it the resolution also. And since the resolution has lapsed, the question of its withdrawal does not arise.

If all this is expected to be an answer to Government's demand that the August resolution must be withdrawn before any negotiations for a constitutional settlement can be resumed and if Government is so satisfied with the explanation as to release the Working Committee Members and resumed negotiations we shall, of course, welcome the move. But we must confess we cannot accept the view that Gandhiji's leadership in the national struggle and the powers and responsibilities arising therefrom have lapsed merely because he was arrested by Government any more than we can accept the view that the Congress President's status as such or that of the Working Committee lapses the moment they are arrested. The powers and responsibilities entrusted to Gandhiji by the A.I.C.C. cannot be at the mercy of any body outside the Congress. They can be withdrawn or modified tentatively or in the first instance by the Congress Executive, the Working Committee, and finally by the A.I.C.C. In fact Gandhiji's responsibilities as accredited leader are all the more heavy to-day when he is free because the entire Working Committee is in jail.

We agree, however, that Gandhiji has no right to change the August resolution. We agree also that his position is extremely anomalous mainly because the situation in the country has so much changed in these two years that many feel that some change in the August resolution is desirable, while Gandhiji cannot commit himself or Congress to any such view until he first consults the Working Committee. The right way out of the difficulty is not to regard the August resolution as having lapsed but as needing reconsideration in the light of the events of the last two years; it being of course understood that the resolution cannot be reconsidered unless and until the Working Committee is free to do so. Nobody, of course, suggests that the demand for immediate transfer of power to India should be compromised.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

Russian Victories

The Red Army's offensive in White Russia was launched some days after the invasion of France. Comparisons between the progress made by the respective Allied forces would be unfair The Red Army did not have to cross 80 miles of sea and then, lightly equipped, batter through an Atlantic Wall prepared over a period of four years. Nevertheless, it has made remarkable progress. Within a week or so of the offensive, Hitler is poorer by a vast quantity of material and over 150,000 men in the process of losing three strongholds alone, Vitebsk, Mogilev and Bobruisk. But he has suffered even worse. He is facing a veritable disaster. Reuter's quote the opinion of Red Army circles that "the rout of Germans in White Russia is developing into the biggest military defeat in history." Such being the case, Hitler cannot stop the rout without rushing immediately his strategic reserves to the White Russian front. In the circumstances, it is rather difficult to understand how he can withdraw divisions from Russia to fight in the west, as he is reported to be doing. In any case White Russia has, today, become the centre of keen and excited interest.

Bracken And Japs

In the course of a debate in the British Parliament, Mr. Brendan Bracken, Information Minister, gave his views on the Japanese and on what he would do to them after the war. Said the Right Honourable loudspeaker of the British Cabinet: "They (the Japs) are savages—brutal savages. They are the Eastern Prussians—worse than Prussians and they will have to get the most exemplary punishment inflicted in history." Mr Bracken's remarks raise two rather fundamental issues. In the first place he freely damns a whole race. This is not really a new thing. Many a representative Britisher, Lord Linlithgow is one instance, have, before Mr. Bracken, denounced the entire population of Japan as uncivilised brutal savages. And one distinguished member of the British Commonwealth, an Australian Minister, actually went to the length of damning not only the Japs but also all orientals. Mr. Bracken's remarks, as we say, are nothing new. But they emphasize their implication: racial prejudice. To damn a whole race is to subscribe to the Nazi doctrine of the inequality of races. Why do Britishers insist on doing so? It is noteworthy in this connection that this reprehensible principle—the mainspring of Nazi, Fascist and Shinto philosophies—continues to be subscribed to despite the wholesome lead given long ago by Marshal Stalin and many a thoughtful American.

Why This Distinction?

The second issue, no less important than the first, is Mr. Bracken's threat that the Japs will get the most exemplary punishment in history because they are worse than East Prussians as "brutal savages." In his vindictive zeal Mr. Bracken first fails to distinguish between criminals and a nation but, secondly, seeks to draw a distinction between the savagery of Nazis and that of Jap militarists. If he had taken the trouble to recall the long statements—not one but a series—on Nazi atrocities in Russia issued by M. Molotov, he would have found that the Nazis have been no less brutal and inhuman than Tojo's Japs. What torture, what horror has not been committed by the Nazis so that the Japs should receive more exemplary punishment? "The most exemplary punishment in history"! What has outraged Mr. Bracken's sense of history? Why this extra-special vindictiveness? These are no idle questions, because, Mr. Bracken being more than an ordinary member of the British Government in that he is a devotee, votary and mouthpiece par excellence of Mr. Winston Churchill, represents in a particular degree the policy and prejudices of the British Government. We protest against this. We have no bias in favour of the Japanese as against East Prussians. We denounced Japanese atrocities even when British diplomats and statesmen were dealing with Jap militarists as if they were civilised men. We still denounce their atrocities. But we protest against Britishers and Europeans seeking to draw distinctions between "Prussian" savages and Japanese "savages."

Avert Another Famine

After hundreds of thousands of people had perished in Bengal from famine the Government of India accepted a food policy the main feature of which was the establishment of a strong central Foodgrain Reserve built with imports from abroad. But though months have passed since then there is no indication of an import programme on the scale suggested by experts. It is not surprising, therefore, that a number of prominent political leaders and industrialists have issued a statement pointing out that acute scarcity is still prevalent in many parts of the country while the military demand is increasing and warning Britain that "large scale import of wheat from abroad alone will help to avert a repetition of the disasters of the past and to renew secure the major base of Allied action in the East." It will be well for Britain to heed the warning while there is yet time. Famine casualties in India at present are clearly due to war conditions, and it is the duty of the United Nations to regard them as war casualties and to try to minimise them by arranging for shipping priorities for food imports to India.

Businessmen And Nationalism

While opening the C. P. and Berar Chamber of Commerce a few days ago, Mr. Gaganvihari L. Mehta, ex-President of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce, gave to the businessmen of the province some wise counsel which needs to be laid to heart by businessmen in general. He pointed out that business associations should no longer be content with making representations to, and registering protests against, Government but should also play an increasingly constructive part in national economy. "If, for example" he said "we honestly practise the cult of Swadeshi instead of merely preaching it on platforms, if we assist Indian enterprise and Indian agencies in our own respective businesses, if we give encouragement to Indian talent and craftmanship and employ Indians in higher grades of executive and technical services, Indian commerce and industry would receive a great fillip." He was more plain spoken when he added that "commercial activities and industrial enterprises have social obligations as well as economic functions to perform and that in future private interests will have to be controlled and regulated for the good of the community" Nay, it is the duty of the business community, he said, "to participate in the struggle for national emancipation". It is encouraging to note that a growing number of Indian businessmen share such nationalist views and even live up to them. But their number needs to be much larger to ensure a speedy emancipation of the country from its political and economic shackles. There are still too many businessmen who only give lip-service to national aspirations but in practice are content to exploit the sacrifices of others to serve their own ends. And how few there are who have had sufficient civic sense to refrain from exploiting conditions created by the war to make unconscionable profits at the expense of the poor!

Strike In Copenhagen

STOCKHOLM, June 30: A labour strike, which is today assuming the proportions of a general strike, broke out in Copenhagen last night, according to reports reaching Stockholm. It is believed that the cause of the strike is the arrest of Trades Union Leaders. Trams have stopped and nearly all telephone communications have been suspended. With a few exceptions all shops are closed. At noon today, German soldiers occupied the Central Station and the goods station.—Reuter.

SECTION 93 IN ORISSA

Governor Issues Proclamation

CUTTACK, June 30.

The Governor of Orissa has made a Proclamation under section 93 of the Government of India Act by which he takes upon himself all powers necessary for carrying on the administration of the province. In the course of a statement His Excellency says: "On June 26, the Hon. the Maharaja of Parlakimedi tendered his resignation of his office as the Prime Minister. He informed me in his letter that he was taking this step, because of disagreements within his Ministry, and with a view to forming a new Ministry.

My discussions with the Prime Minister, with his colleagues, and with others, have led me to the conclusion that though the Prime Minister resigned with a view to forming a new Ministry, he nevertheless does not possess the majority support needed for that purpose. In the present conditions, this has meant that a situation has arisen in which the Government of the Province cannot be carried on in accordance with the provisions of the Government of India Act. As provided in that act, I have therefore, with the concurrence of His Excellency the Governor-General made the proclamation under Section 93 which I am issuing to-day, under the terms of which I take upon myself all powers necessary for carrying on the administration."—A. Missionary Methods In Mandla

More Revelations By Verrier Elwin

By Verrier Elwin, D. Sc.

To my previous communication I can add three further details about the situation in the occupied territory of Mandla District. In a village called Kutela, a young Hindu, son of the local Patwari (revenue official of Government) was employed by the Catholic Fathers to open a school. Seeing that most of his fellow-teachers were being baptized within a few months, as a loyal Hindu he resigned, the villagers sent a petition to the Deputy Commissioner asking that a Christian school should not be established in their village, and in due course the same boy was appointed to run a school at Kutela for the Bhumijan Seva Mandal. Soon afterwards the boy's father, an official of the C. P. Government, received the following letter from the Mission. The original is in my possession; this is a translation.

Patwari Saheb greetings. Your son had opened the school (for us) and it was running quite well. But now he has taken his pay from (the Bhumijan Seva Mandal) But now if he makes any mischief against us, I shall bring the Swami (this is the curious way the Fathers like to be addressed) to Kutela. If you wish well to yourself, then make your son beware.

(Signed) L. JOSEPH XALXO

What impertinence it is that these foreigners, not content with interfering with the most deeply-held beliefs and customs of India, should issue instructions and threats to Government officials! Such behaviour would not be tolerated for a moment in the Empire of Queen Wilhelmina. Had I, for example, been doing research like my friend Dr. Bateson, in Bali and had I ventured to convert the Balinese or interfere in the affairs of Dutch officials, I would have been deported in a week.

GOND SHRINE "BURNT DOWN"

Near Singpur, the Protestant missionaries have actually 'burnt down' a sacred Gond Shrine, but the people were too terrorized to make a report to the police.

My third detail is the case of the fine aboriginal boy, 17 to 18 years old, full of hope and promise, who being in need of a job and with no idea of what it would involve, accepted service under the Catholic Fathers. At first not a word was said to him about religion. A school was started with copious gifts of liquor and tobacco. He was put in charge. He found that he had to go to Mission Headquarters for his pay. Like all the other Hindu and aboriginal teachers, he had to go on a Saturday and only got his pay on Sunday after attending Church. Those who did not go to Church did not get their pay. When he got ill and refused to go to Church he was refused medicine. 'How can God cure you,' he was asked, 'if you do not go to Church?'

After a few months this simple and innocent boy was given a book of Catholic teachings and told to study it. He would be examined and would have to join the Church. The master (and these were all Hindu and aboriginal master) who stood first would get a money prize; those who did well would get an increase in pay. The aboriginal children in the school were given crucifixes; they were taught to say Jai Jesu as a greeting; every day, school opened with prayer—the Paternoster and Ave in Hindi and the 'mantra' of the Catholic faith. The boy was given a medal, which he was told to kiss morning and evening. On one side was embossed the image of the Queen of Heaven; on the other the unprepossessing features of the Italian potentate who blessed Badoglio's armies on their way to the rape of Abyssinia. It was not, indeed, a bad symbol for the conquest of Mandla—for the aboriginals and Hindus of this District are as simple and as defenceless against foreign aggression as were the ill-armed Abyssinians.

The boy passed his exam. and was told that he would now be baptized. When I asked him why he agreed he said: It was an official order; how could I disobey?" He was given a horse and a gift of money. He was given a new name—Innocent. The Father told him: 'What a sweet English name it is.' The boy was promised that if he would get his parents baptized also, he would be given training in the famous Aboriginal Normal School at Sijhora. He was told that he would be given gifts of money at his marriage provided he married a Christian girl or converted his wife to Christianity.

I am glad to say that I have been able to liberate this fine boy, victim of so much monetary persuasion, and he has returned to the Hindu faith.

"GANDHIJI IN CO-OPERATIVE STATE OF MIND EVEN IN PRISON"

British Press Intrigued By Conflicting Reports About Mahatma-Wavell Correspondence

(From Our Correspondent)

LONDON, June 30.

Political circles here are intrigued by conflicting reports over the Gandhi-Wavell correspondence and about an unconfirmed report from India that Lord Wavell turned down Gandhiji's request for an interview.

The "London Times" in their first edition published a despatch from their Bombay correspondent, that Lord Wavell's refusal was based on the fact that Gandhiji has not shown any real change of heart since passing 'Quit India' resolution. But in their second edition, the paper killed the despatch.

The "New Statesman and Nation" writes: "The Gandhi Wavell Correspondence reveals that although many people imagined that he would refuse to have any discussions with the British authorities until Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru and other Congress leaders were also released, Gandhiji was in a co-operative state of mind even when in the prison."

The paper suggests that as official charges against the Congress for responsibility for acts of violence in 1942 were given wide publicity through a British white paper British as well as the Indian public must now hear the defence against those charges.

JAP DRIVE ON HUNAN

U. S. Base At Hengyang Captured

CHUNGKING, June 29.

The American air base at Hengyang on the Canton-Hankow Railway in South-east China has been captured by the Japanese, it is announced in a "communique" from General Stilwell. The base lost on Monday has already been bombed and its runway completely destroyed. Hengyang itself is still in Chinese hands. Fighting round the city has involved heavy casualties on both sides.

Of the two Chinese groups counter-attacking the Japanese between Changshau and Hengyang, one has recaptured Pingsiang in the Kiangsi province, about 100 miles north-east of Hengyang. The other has reached the outskirts of the important town of Siansiang, about 60 miles north of Hengyang. Chennault's Fourteenth Air Force is doing its utmost to arrest the Japanese drive on Hunan, attacking troops and other targets.—Reuter.

Chinese Troops Withdraw

CHUNGKING, June 30: A Chinese military spokesman says that the Chinese garrison of Hengyang, completely surrounded, withdrew this morning into the centre of the city. The outcome for the Hunan battle depends a great deal on the progress of the present Chinese flank attacks near Changsha and on the fighting south of Hengyang where the main Chinese strength is located. The Japanese drive in China is not likely to affect Allied strategy, since even if the Japanese occupy the Canton—Hankow Railway, it will require six months to repair the line and at least five divisions to garrison it.—Reuter.

NEW NAZI DEAL WITH VICHY?

BERLIN, June 30: The German News Agency said today (Friday) that Germany is negotiating a new agreement with the Vichy Government. Reuter adds that yesterday Berlin reported "a specially important" meeting of the entire French Cabinet, including Vichy and Paris members.—Reuter.

Muslim League Working Committee To Meet At Lahore By The End Of Next Month

BOMBAY, June 28.

According to the present programme it is learnt that Mr. Jinnah will leave Kashmir by about July 15 and after sending a day or two at Rawalpindi will proceed to Lahore

A special significance attaches to a meeting of the Muslim League Working Committee which it is learnt, is likely to be held at Lahore some time during the end of the July.

The Punjab affairs are booked for special attention and the present anomalous position of the remaining Muslim members of the Unionist Party vis-a-vis the League is expected to be fully clarified. It is stated that the League Command may also utilise the occasion for discussing measures to further strengthen the League ministries functioning in Bengal, Assam, Sind and the North West Frontier Province.

With regard to Bengal a feeling of optimism prevails in Muslim League circles who are confident that the present Government will retain a comfortable majority in the Legislature which is bound to increase. Recent developments on the Indian political front is likely to be referred to in a resolution which the League Working Committee is expected to pass reiterating the League's demand for Pakistan and expressing once again the League's readiness to negotiate on that basis for a settlement of the Indian deadlock.

An authoritative League spokesman stressed in a recent off the record talk, that a categorical declaration. By Mahatma Gandhi accepting the Muslim right of self-determination, is bound to create the right atmosphere for Congress-League negotiations—A.P.

Goebbels' Confession!

LONDON, June 29. The German news agency to-night quoted a weekly article in the 'Das Reich' by Dr. Goebbels in which he stated: "It is no empty phrase when I say that we are literally fighting for our bare existence. Our enemies command a greater number of both men and material. Consequently Germany will have to employ the men and material at her disposal in a still more rationalised manner than hitherto. Total war is a hard taskmaster. It derives its intensity and character from the fierce determination of our enemies. Their war is undeniably unconditional and knows no compromise. We must therefore follow their example and be equally without compromise."—Reuter.

WITHOUT COMMENT—

"SIMLA, June 29.

"Advices from Bombay indicate that Mr. Jamnadas Mehta, is being appointed as the Special Representative of the Government of India with the Government of Burma to represent Indian interests ....."—United Press.

Commenting on Lord Wavell's rejection of Gandhiji's request, Sir Chimanlal Setalvad says: "One cannot but regret the attitude of Government."

We congratulate Sir Chimanlal.

One of the reasons, of course, is that "by the present ill advised decision of the Government, they are considerably increasing the power and popularity of Mr. Gandhi and the Congress in the masses' mind."

Even then we congratulate Sir Chimanlal.

"Shall India alone be denied her freedom?" asks Mr. K. M. Munshi.

No Sir, Mr. Churchill is not so miserly in his denials. He will bestow the privilege on Burma, Malaya, Palestine, African colonies, the French, Dutch and Belgian "Empires" too.

There is no stint in his Imperialist largesse of denials of freedom.

The Government of India, have, according to a Lucknow message, refused permission to the well-known daily, the "National Herald" to resume publication.

We are glad they did so instead of showing any weakness in the matter. A paper that, all through the period preceding the war was a fierce and persistent critic of British international policy and Britain's relations with Russia and China would not but prove a danger to the war effort.

A Cuttack report says that Orissa is to revert to Section 93 administration.

It must have been a rather difficult question for Mr. Amery, the Viceroy, Governor and the I.C.S.: "To rule directly or to propagandise in Parliament and in America?"

But it's all right since nobody even in America bothers to be influenced by the proportion between Governor administered Provinces and Governor ruled Provincial Ministries.

His Exalted Highness the Nizam's Political Secretary appeals to the Indian film industry to promote unity rather than "stress points of difference or create dissensions and aid discord among the various interests or communities inhabiting this sub-continent....."

Every word of this appeal is calculated to strike a destructive blow at the very foundation of the two-nation theory and eternal differences in interests, cultures etc.

Mr. Jinnah must immediately fly from Srinagar to Hyderabad and, on behalf of 10 crore Muslims—including therein, of course, His Exalted Highness himself—demand that the Nizam dismiss his Political Secretary forthwith.

* * *

As you know, twenty-seven Indian public men and industrialists, including two ex-Executive Councillors, have, in their appeal to Britain and the United Nations, accused Whitehall of apathy and indifference to the food crisis which is again threatening India.

But there is no confirmation yet of the report that Mr. Amery has caused enquiries to be made whether the antipathy of the twenty-seven is not due to resentment at Mr. Amery's exposure that they as Indians eat too much.

PLEA FOR FEDERAL DEPARTMENT OF AGRICOLOGY

Recommendations Of Four-Day Session Of Policy Committee

SIMLA, June 29.

The four-day session of the Policy Committee on Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries concluded in Simla today. The Committee has recommended a comprehensive plan for more efficient means of production and the organisation required for research and development. It has been suggested that a Federal Department of Agricology should be established as a separate and self-contained department of the Central Government and that the Imperial Council of Agricultural Research should become a Federal Council of Agricology dealing with both research and development.

The Committee has laid down that those items of work should be taken up first which are likely to give the maximum amount of food in the minimum time.

The Committee decided to request provincial governments to help the committee by communicating to it their views, criticisms and concrete suggestions in respect of the various recommendations of the Committee within three months.

In his closing remarks, the Hon'ble Sir Jogendra Singh, Member for Education, Health and Lands, who presided, said that they had done their work for the time being and would meet again in October to carry on the work they had started.

Earlier the committee considered the rehabilitation of existing forests, the establishment of new forests and the development of village plantations.

The committee further recommended that steps should be taken for the development of industries for the utilisation of minor forest produce which will provide avenues of employment for the growing population in forest tracts.—A. P.

Indore Congress Committee Urges People Not To Participate In Coming Elections

The Indore Congress Committee calls upon all the political workers and the people of Indore not to take part in the forthcoming elections to the Legislative Council. The Committee is dissatisfied with the Holkar's silence over the demand for responsible Government. The Legislative Council, the Committee says, is full of nominated members and can neither pass the Budget nor have the right to form ministry. The Committee therefore urges the people to ignore the elections and devote themselves to fight for the realization of responsible Government.

NAGPUR, June 29: The C.P. and Berar Chamber of Commerce has telegraphed to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Industries and Civil Supplies Department, point out that the new paper control order is highly drastic and requesting reconsideration of the position.

BULLION:—Yesterday London Gold was unchanged at £8/8/0, Dollar Sterling cross rate was 4.02-1/2 to 4.03-1/2 at London and 4.03 at New York. London Spot and forward Silver quotations were unchanged at 23-1/2d and New York Spot Silver was quoted at 44-3/4 cents.

The local market was very firm on heavy short covering which resulted in a further rise in Silver quotations. It appears that those who sold in anticipation of arrivals of American Silver are caught and there being no news regarding U. S. A. Silver, those are short do not like to pay the discount of one rupee every week. Moreover upcountry market quotations are also higher and naturally there was less disposition to sell. Forward Silver opened at Rs. 128/4 and declined to Rs. 127/4 on realising but again firmed up to Rs. 127/10. Forward Gold was quoted at Rs. 73/8.

Later on the market was firm with extensive buying and forward Silver rose to Rs. 129. Quotations Ready Silver Rs. 132/6. Forward Rs. 128/14. Ready Gold Rs. 74/2. Forward Rs. 73/15. Sovereign Rs. 56/14.

RAJKOT, June 30.—Silver Rs. 129. Groundnut Oil Rs. 16/12.

COTTON:—The market was quietly steady with a restricted turnover. The recent improvement in September was mostly due to technical considerations and absence of rain but July remained neglected as demand for actual cotton failed to improve. The market opened today at Rs. 430 for September delivery and improved to Rs. 430/8 but reacted to Rs. 429/8 on moderate realising. At the decline there was absence of selling and prices again steadied at Rs. 430/4. July was quoted at Rs. 407/8.

Under moderate realising September declined to Rs. 428/4 but sharply advanced to Rs. 432/12 on active general professional buying. Towards the close there was some professional selling and the market closed at 6 p.m. as under:—

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET

New York, June 29.

Cotton advanced on price-fixing, trade buying and meagreness of offerings, but then sagged on generally favourable crop weather news and continued confusion over price control workings with a general disposition to await the Presidential signature and the expected accompanying statement for possible partial clarification. Then prices turned firmer on persistent dribbling price-fixing and scarcity of contracts. Deparment of Agriculture parity as of June 15th for cotton 21.08.

The Half-Column "By Dim"

If ever there was a deadlock in the true sense of the word, it is now. While to most Indians the situation must be very clear, let me analyse it for those many non-Indians at present in this country, who wonder what it is all about. In August 1942, the Congress passed the Quit India resolution. It was followed by the immediate arrest of Congress leaders, which in turn was followed by disturbances all over the country. The Government maintain that the disturbances were the result of the resolution, while Mahatma Gandhi says that they were the inevitable result of arresting the leaders. The Mahatma also indicates that had the leaders been left alone, there would have been no disturbances. The Government says that the arresting of the leaders saved even worse disturbances. Recently the Mahatma fell ill and was released, Government emphasising that his release was purely on medical grounds. Now the Mahatma is reasonably out of the initial danger and has asked for an interview with the Viceroy. The Viceroy says there is no change in attitude and there is consequently no point in an interview. The Mahatma is, therefore, being forced into a position where he would have to withdraw the August resolution if he wishes to meet the Viceroy. This the Mahatma is not prepared to do for many reasons, chief among which is that if he were to do so, he would virtually be accepting the Government's interpretation of that resolution. Basically, however, to all political observers it is becoming clear that the Mahatma is anxious to review the whole situation in the light of all that has happened and would like to adopt a constructive attitude, if Government would let him do so with grace. Government are not prepared to let him do so with grace. Lord Wavell has been expressly put into the Viceregal chair to see that the prestige of Mr. Churchill's Raj is not let down. The whole position is somewhat like a couple that are on the eve of divorce and one would like to make up their differences, but the other says: "You say sorry first. Or else I shan't speak to you." And the other says: "What should I say sorry for, when I have really not done anything wrong?"

The Safest Savings Scheme of all

What is the good of saving for the future, only to see your money disappear with the coming of Peace? That is what is likely to happen if you invest savings in gold, silver, jewellery, house-property, or manufactured goods. From now on, the high prices of these things may be expected to fall towards normal, and where will your savings be then?

It is important to understand why foolish people lose fortunes in war-time through blindly trusting in precious metals and property regardless of price. Do not be caught this way yourself! Put your spare money into National Savings Certificates, which cost only Rs. 10 each, but will be worth a guaranteed Rs. 15 each at the end of 12 years.

National Savings Certificates can be encashed at any time after the first three years. These certificates are free of Income Tax and each investor can hold up to a maximum of Rs. 5,000/-.

MONEY INVESTED IN

National Savings Certificates

IS ABSOLUTELY SAFE.

National Savings Certificates can be bought at any Post Office which has a Savings Bank.

Epics! No. 3

This space is dedicated not only to the men but also the women of Bataan, who faced similar hardships, constant bombing and still remained a source of inspiration to their men. The salute that General MacArthur gave to the mothers and wives of the men who defended Bataan to the last—"The Bataan force went out as it would have wished, fighting to the end its flickering forlorn hope. No Army has ever done so much with so little and nothing became it more than its last hour of trial and agony."—will remain a permanent tribute to their heroism.
